

AUGUST 2009

Family and Friends,

The following words are from the wonderful old hymn, "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood".

*There is a fountain filled with blood drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains.*

*Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood shall never lose its power
'Til all the ransomed Church of God be saved to sin no more.*

From teammate Kathy Bowe in Kenya, East Africa, comes one of many Emails to us as the stunning news of Ted's aggressive brain tumor has found its way across this Planet. "As you reflect over your life, aren't you pleased that you gave your life to Jesus and have worked tirelessly for Him? May the Lord bless you both with incredible peace during this time."

To dear Kathy and all of you: Yes, the power of His precious blood is the "engine" that has driven us both for nearly sixty-three years. How blessed we are to "serve a Risen Saviour Who is in the world today".

Ted begins radiation and chemo tomorrow; five days a week for six or seven weeks. We are desirous that he be given more time to tell people about our Risen Saviour. Oh, how our Father loves you and me and every imprisoned soul that has not yet heard that He "has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

What a privilege is mine: providing the best possible loving care for my dearest friend. ...my husband of nearly sixty years. God's grace is indescribable through family and friends who are all around all the time. As time is given me, I will continue to prepare Ted's podcasts for our web-site and write, send and teach Bible studies in John, Acts and Hebrews. Peter is beckoning me to both of his Books early in the mornings, giving me eternal perspective. Yes, there are tears. Many of them. ...and Jesus weeps with us.

The blog tedandjostone.blogspot.com will be updated as I have something to report.

Jo, for the two of us.
